How do We protect Your Privacy?

We are bound by the obligations of the Privacy Act 1988. This sets out basic standards relating to the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information. Personal information is information or an opinion about a living individual whose identity is apparent or can reasonably be ascertained from the information or opinion.

Information will be obtained from individuals directly where possible. Sometimes it may be collected indirectly (e.g. from your representative). Only information necessary for the arrangement and administration of Your insurance will be collected. This includes information necessary to accept the risk, to assess a claim, to determine competitive and appropriate premiums, etc.

We and our agents disclose personal information to third parties who We believe are necessary to assist us in doing the above. These parties will only use the personal information for the purposes for which it is provided (or if required by law). When You give Us and Our agents personal information about other individuals, We rely on You to have made or make them aware that You will or may provide their personal information to Us, the types of third parties it may be provided to, the relevant purposes it will be used for, and how they can access it.

If it is sensitive information, We rely on You to have obtained their consent on these matters. If You have not done or will not do either of these things, You must tell Us (or Your agent) before You provide the relevant information.

You are entitled to access Your information if You wish and request correction if required. You may also opt out of receiving materials sent by Us by contacting Us as follows:

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

If We ask You questions that are relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms, You must tell Us anything that You know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You or renew Your policy.

Renewals

We may give You a copy of anything You have previously told Us and ask You to tell Us if it has changed. If We do this, You must tell Us about any change or tell Us that there is no change.

If You do not tell Us about a change to something You have previously told Us, You will be taken to have told Us that there is no change.

You have this duty until We agree to renew the contract.

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to tell Us, We may cancel Your Policy or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, or if We would not have issued the Policy if not for Your failure to tell Us anything You are required to tell Us, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the Policy as if it never existed.

How to apply for this insurance

When You apply for insurance You will need to give ShieldCover information about You and Your circumstances. The information We need will be contained in the Proposal We will provide to You. We will assess the information that You provide Us and if Your application is accepted, We will issue You with a Certificate of Insurance confirming the cover that is in place.

The cost of this insurance

The amount that We charge You for this insurance is the total that We calculate when considering all of the factors which make up the risk, type of sporting activity, age of participant, Excess Period, amount of cover, claims history. These factors will impact on Your Premium as follows:

FACTOR	REDUCES PREMIUM	INCREASES PREMIUM
Occupation	Low Risk Occupation – Clerical	High Risk Occupation – Non Clerical
Age	Lower Age	Higher Age
Excess Period	Longer Excess Period	Shorter Excess Period
Type of Cover	Working Hours Only	Full Cover – 24 Hours Day
Amount of Cover	Lower Lump Sum / Weekly Benefits	Higher Lump Sum / Weekly Benefits
Claims History	Lower Frequency	Higher Frequency

You also have to pay GST and any relevant government charges where applicable. These amounts add up to the total Premium You must pay. Once the Policy is issued, Your Premium, GST and any relevant government charges are shown on the Certificate of Insurance.

How to make a Claim

You must notify ShieldCover in writing within thirty (30) days of an event that is likely to give rise to a claim. If it is not possible to notify ShieldCover within that time, You must notify ShieldCover as soon as reasonably possible.

Once notified of a claim, ShieldCover will provide You with the relevant claim forms. You and the Insured Person must fully complete and return the claim forms to ShieldCover together with such other information and documentation that ShieldCover may require in order to consider the claim including but not limited to all relevant health certificates, Medical Practitioners' reports, employer reports and related evidence of the claim.

Please note that all benefits are paid without deduction for taxation and may be subject to taxation. See Your tax advisor for information about Your personal circumstances.

Excesses

An Excess Period may apply to this insurance. The Excess Period is the period (of consecutive days) stated in the Certificate of Insurance. During any Excess Period, no benefits are payable.

An excess may also be payable when You make a claim under this insurance. The amount of any excess is set out in the Policy or will be stated in the Certificate of Insurance. We calculate the excesses that apply using the same information that We use to calculate the cost of this insurance (see table p6).

12. The Insurer may at their own expense conduct any medical examination or examinations or arrange for an autopsy to be carried out.
13. Cover under the Policy will cease in respect of an Insured Person if:

the sum equivalent to the payment of Weekly Benefits for the maximum period at which time benefits will cease to be payable to that Insured Person.

16. If there is a breach of any of the General Conditions of the Policy, the Insurer shall be entitled to reject a claim to the extent permitted by the Insurance Contracts Act. However, a breach by an individual person will not affect the cover or claims of other Insured Persons.
17. All amounts shown on the Policy are in Australian dollars (AUD).

Instalment Policies

Where You have selected to pay by instalments, special conditions apply to Your Policy. If You do not pay Your Premium instalment by the agreed date, We can do the following:

- In the event of a claim, not pay for any benefits You may be entitled to if an instalment is more than 14 days in arrears.
- If an instalment is less than 14 days overdue, deduct the overdue amount from any claim settlement.
- Cancel Your Policy if any Premium instalment is unpaid for one month or more.

Sanction Limitation and Exclusion Clause

The Insurer shall not be deemed to provide cover nor be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit hereunder to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose the Insurer to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, United Kingdom, United States of America or Australia.

Several Liability Notice

The subscribing Insurers' obligations under contracts of Insurance to which they subscribe are several and not joint and are limited solely to the extent of their individual subscriptions.
